(By Times Special Wire.) New York, April 23.—A cable to the Herald from London this

A great battle in the North sees—the most uname engagement is history of mary awafare—may be a question of hours. All tractial shipping has been cleared from the old German Ocean, all preparations are complete for a trial of strength between rithin fleet and the German grand fleet, supported by the Heli-

Rumor after rumor spread through the streets, rad clubs, each fed by some line from the telegraph told of activities of the Empire's forces afloat.

shat told of activities of the Empire's forces afloat. For a week British warships have been operating in the east-raches of the North Sea, even under the guns of Heligoland if. A statement during the day by the German Admiralty said his submarines had been repeatedly observed in Heligoland, which lies between the island fortress and the mainland, and one of these craft was sent to the bottom on April 17. This German statement was passed by the censor in London boat comment and without denial.

Rimes For The Times (BY R. J. DEVINE)

Why Not Advertise To-day?

If you want to reach the people and invite them to your sales, use The Times for advertising, you will find it never fails. Times ads always bring results and help to make your business grow; Times ads keep the workers busy; Times ads make the trade winds blow. This is no exaggeration—try the thing out for yourself—advertise your goods and sell them—they Il get, dusty on the shell. You can speak to lots of shoppers if your ad is in the Times; they Ill foot to you with their coppers and their nickels and their dimes; you will do a rushing business and you'll faid that Times ads pay. Why not give the thing a trial—why no advertise to-day!

Three Suit Prices Featured Saturday

OUR stock is now about at its best and scores of men will be fitted out here to-morrow.

The assortment of new styles is large enough to fill any order you can give us. The new English model is only one of the favorites with the young men. The Collegian, the Campus and "first long trouser" models are also smart styles for the younger generation.

You'll find these special styles are each entirely different to the others—not merely named differently.

NEW SUITS AT $10.00

Never have we been able to show more attractive pat-terns at this price. Dark blue ground with fine hairline stripe, dark brown with fine over-stripe, grey and brown fine checks and a dozen other patterns that you'd say were worth at least $15.00. We'll have all sizes, 33 to 42, at $10.00

NEW SUITS AT $15.00

Perhaps at no price is there so much competition in the suit business. Every little tailoring concern and every big tailoring plant put their best efforts into producing good elothes at $15.00 per suit. We welcome competition while this splendid assortment of ours lasts. Blue serges, fancy cheviots and the newest weaves in English and Canadian tweeds; all sizes at $15.00.

NEW SUITS AT $18.00

This is where we are the strongest. Every suit has passed through our highest grade tailor shop, where only the best labor and best linings are used in every garment. Many a suit goes out from here with a $30 look to it but the actual price paid by the wearer

E-ORGANIZATION SALE

THE RIGHT HOUSE

THERE are people in Hamilton, hundreds of them, who will not soon forget the Re-Organization Sale. The scene at the store—the vast crowds through the whole live long day was impressive enough in itself, but the bargains with their almost unbelieveable savings will not quickly fade from the memory of the many who benefitted. For one thing, it was a powerful demonstration of the great fact that the "OLD HOUSE OF WATKINS," is truly Hamilton's Favorite Shopping Place and that its sales are distinctly different, indeed!
